The Camp in April can be a little chilly if hiking outside. Plan to bring

- warm outdoor clothes
- a good book
- your Bible
- Comfy clothes and slippers
- your knitting
- snacks to share
- photos of kids or grandkids
- whatever helps to make you comfortable here

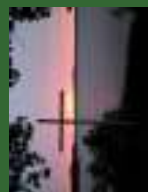

Our Lodge rooms do NOT have hair-dryers so be sure to bring your own.

For more information about our Camp, go to our website at www.presbycamp.org.

The Presbyterian Camp on Okoboji seeks to be a sacred space where all may come and experience God.

Women's Retreat at The Presbyterian Camp on Okoboji

April 20-22, 2012

Led by

Rev. Kristin Pike

So Great A Cloud of Witnesses

Come prepared to laugh, learn and lounge around Lake Okoboji. We'll have lots of fun and plenty of time to just rest and enjoy the beauty of our surroundings. Our retreat's inspiration will come from the lives of women throughout the centuries, many of whom you will probably meet for the first time. Our Christian sisters have been in the shadows far too long and we'll bring some of them and their spiritual practices into the light. Plenty of activities are planned along with plenty of time to just relax! Women of all ages are welcome to join us.

Rev. Kristin Pike

The Pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Boone, Iowa. Kristin and her husband, Eric, moved to Iowa from North Carolina last year with their three children. She has worked in the church since 1997 as everything from a bookkeeper, a secretary, a graphic designer and communications director before her ordination to the ministry. She studied history and English literature and even took Latin for fun. She loves to knit, read and work on puzzles of all kinds. More than anything she loves to laugh and share her love of history with anyone and everyone.
